About amodern

amodern explores and creates modern minimalist lighting products for urban elites, providing cutting-edge designs and creativity. With a unique and innovative perspective, we strive to craft simplicity and luxury that withstands the test of time, rather than blindly following trends.

amodern seeks meaningful creativity, extending aesthetics while creating functional objects that cater to users' needs. We return to the essence of materials, craftsmanship, and life itself to unearth the deeper value of lighting fixtures. Our goal is to achieve not only visual expression but also a perfect blend of practicality, functionality, structure, optics, and comfort.

amodern pours all its passion into refining every detail of light and fixtures, allowing you to enjoy the beauty of light and the beauty of home. We design with love to shape the essence of life!

Convey
this LOVE

Jiang Ming, with many years of experience in the lighting and illumination industry, is a seasoned designer in the field. He is a proponent of Italian-style light luxury in China and holds the distinction of being the youngest among the "Top 12 Emerging Professionals in the Industry" selected by HuaYi Plaza.

Over the years, Jiang Ming has traveled to multiple countries around the world, engaging in in-depth discussions and collaborations with foreign design luminaries, exchanging advanced design concepts and techniques. It is thanks to this accumulated learning that renowned projects such as the Chengdu Le Méridien Hotel, Shenzhen Qianhai International Conference Center, and Guangxi Lianhua Villa have come into existence.

Jiang Ming believes that design is not just about color, point, lines, surface and structures; it requires passion and love. It is out of love that he established the amodern Lighting brand, using the radiance of a lamp to convey this love.
